This is a test, testing, testing the captioning. It takes about 24 to 48 hours to get it on our website. The closed captioning is provided. There will be a transcript available. If you have any questions regarding the presentation, please post in the chat box below. We will not be using the raised hand feature during the webinar because we have a limited amount of time and probably a lot of people will be joining us, and if you have any other questions that we cannot answer during the presentation, you may email myself at ASCtutoring@waldenU.EDU, and my name is Kim. And in a few minutes, we’ll get started.

Okay. Welcome, everyone. All right. So, welcome and thank you for joining us tonight. And tonight we are having a webinar on "Introduction to designing a basic PowerPoint presentation 2010/PC." And today we are joined by Brooke Hill, Ladonna Cottrell, graduate assistants with the academic skills center, hearing services program. Brooke will soon have her academic -- and will be starting a program in at den specializing in educational technology. Ladonna has a B.S. from Norfolk state University and is currently enrolled in the M.S. and social work program. Brooke and Ladonna both enjoy supporting * with den students with problem-solving and trouble shooting their difficulties working in M.S. Word and M.S. PowerPoint. And they can be reached by email at wordsupport@waldenU.EDU and PowerPoint help@waldenU.EDU. I'm Kim Palermo-KIELB, coordinator with
