Building Academic Bridges
Connecting Faculty and International Students

Laurel Walsh, MFA, EdD
Executive Director, CFE
Overview

• Materials and Textbooks
• Public Service Trips
• International Residency
• U.S. Academic Integrity Nuances
• Supporting International Faculty (Survey)
Materials

• During development, consider embedding the course material in the classroom (HMNT 1001: All resources repurposed from library)

• Consider including an interactive map in the Class Café (https://www.zeemaps.com/)

• Include a link to time zones in real time, and consider a time zone calendar (http://www.timeanddate.com/worldclock/)
International Study Abroad

• Immersive travel and learning adventures around the globe. Eastern Europe (Budapest, Krakow, Prague and Vienna) Oct. 8-19th 2016

• Explore the history, culture, and customs of other countries with a small group of fellow learners.

• Learn from guest lecturers, interact with members of the local communities, and tour historic sites with expert guides.

• Focus on the adventure while Walden-approved tour operators handle all the logistics.
Public Service Trips

• Panama: March 2016
• Enrollment: IDST 4002: Seminar with Public Service for Spring 2016 (6 week course-5 elective credits)
This website is for international students applying for a Walden University I-20 to support an F-1 student visa for limited entry into the United States for attendance at Walden University domestic residencies. –

See more at: http://residencies.waldenu.edu/FORM-I20.htm#sthash.F7DXsUcr.dpuf
U.S. Academic Integrity Traditions

• Essential to cite sources (use quotes for material that is identical to the original language)
• Other cultures do not have rigid citation requirements, and common phrases/familiar quotes are expected to be repeated in academic writing
• Difficult to reconcile the differences (essential to have a conversation before assuming the worst intent)
International Faculty Survey
International Student Success Toolkit

• Order ebooks from Amazon (or other online websites).

• Familiarize yourself with the Walden Writing Center and paper templates.

• Take advantage of Tutoring services.

• Join the Walden community to communicate and collaborate with other students.
Questions?
More questions? Stay Informed!

Current Walden students, e-mail:
AS Ctutoring@Waldenu.edu

Subscribe to our Facebook & Twitter channels to keep up-to-date on new information, ask questions and share your knowledge.

Visit our website for tutorials, event schedules, tutoring services, courses and workshops.