Savvy Tip for Success

December’s Student Tip:

“Try to limit the possible distractions when studying or writing papers to allow for clear thought and reflection on the information being learned or written about.”

J. Fluckiger, Walden Student

Share your tip and it could be featured in an upcoming issue of the ASC’s Savvy Student Newsletter.

WCSS 2018 Transition to CAEX

In January 2018 the WCSS courses, workshops, and seminars will transition to CAEX (e.g., WCSS 8015 will become CAEX 8015). This shift from WCSS to CAEX reflects the change from the Center for Student Success to the Center for Academic Excellence.

Our e-mail account will also shift from wcsscourses@mail.waldenu.edu to caexcourses@mail.waldenu.edu on January 2, 2018.

One Year on The Savvy Student Blog, Podcast, and Newsletter

In January 2017, the Academic Skills Center released its first blog post, first podcast episode, and first Savvy Student Newsletter. We want to thank all our staff members for contributing to these outlets, and we especially want to thank you for reading this newsletter, listening to our podcasts, and reading our blog posts.

We are very excited about our offerings in 2018 and hope that our contributions help you become successful here at Walden University.

Our most sincere thanks to you.
