Top stories in this newsletter

Jazma Parker

My role as the Chief of Security and Intelligence Operations under the U.S Department of Defense gives me the opportunity to make a positive social change by supporting law enforcement in the fight against terrorism. Following the devastation caused by the September 11th attacks, I am committed to ensuring that such a disaster does not happen again. The ultimate goal is to safeguard the country and reassure American citizens of their national security.

Adrienne Long

I am a mentor for The Rhonda Walker Foundation in Detroit, Michigan. The foundation is for teen girls ages 12-17 and was founded by Rhonda Walker who is a well known news anchor at WDIV channel four in Detroit, Michigan. Rhonda's hope enables mentors be a apart of turning girls into women. Therefore, the girl's involvement keeps them active, off the streets, promotes sisterhood, gives them opportunities to gain scholarships, and bonds with their designated mentors.

Anovia Slaughter

This is the Brainerd High School Senior Shake! An annual event where community organizations come together to support the Brainerd Seniors by shaking hands and talking to them about their future; post graduation from high school. I have proudly participated in this opportunity for mentoring youth for the last four years.

Eric Prince

My goal, along with the U.S Coast Guard Auxiliary Unit is to share what drowning actually looks like, as supposed to what is seen in fictional television and movies. I conduct service announcements with the general public by sharing preventative videos to prepare for swimming activities at beaches and other swimming locations.

Inspirational Quotes for the Fall and Winter Terms:

- Fear is what stops you. Courage is what keeps you going. - Unknown
- Your mind is a powerful thing. When you fill it up with positive thoughts, your life will start to change. - Unknown
- The best preparation for tomorrow is doing your best today. - H. Jackson Brown, Jr.
- A dream doesn't become reality through magic; it takes sweat, determination and hard work. - Colin Powell
- Hope if the only thing stronger than fear. - Vector
Lois Woods

I am the Deputy Chief Investigator for a prosecutor's office in Georgia. We are currently affecting social change by working in conjunction with our county's police department and other state and local agencies in the “Teens Initiating Change Program.” The goal and purpose of this program is to empower and educate youth on matters of police services and sciences; to enhance their personal strengths as they relate to community involvement and crime prevention.

Cecelia Garner

My contribution to social change contains multiple layers that help sustain human growth in my community! I volunteer with the Richmond Boys Choir, work with the Richmond City Youth Football Camp, work as a reentry service provider for offender aid and restoration, and participated in a Unity Walk with local law enforcement agencies.

Dr. Gregory Campbell

I developed the Epsilon Omicron Boule Because We Can Mentoring Program. The mission of the program is to expand opportunities and create pathways to success for African American boys (14–18 years of age) involved in high school athletics who have the desire, skills, and capabilities to succeed, but lack the insight of African American role models, financial resources, mentoring/tutoring, and the needed social awareness to equip them for their journey in life. I coordinated the successful mentoring of 10 high school athletes (8 seniors and 2 juniors).

Aleta Eldridge

I work with the Commonwealth of Kentucky Emergency Management where I have completed searches for missing persons in the Louisville area. I volunteer with Jefferson County Search Dog Association, and I have delivered clothing that was donated to Free2Hope shelter for children caught in Human Trafficking.

Please Welcome the Newest Members to the Chapter!!