Savvy Tip for Success

November's Student Tip:

“When attending class, remove as many distractions as you possibly can; turn off your television, radio, and/or cell phone.”

- K. McFarland, Walden Student

Share your tip and it could be featured in an upcoming issue of the ASC’s Savvy Student Newsletter.

CAEX Courses & Workshops

Your Center for Academic Excellence (CAEX) would like to announce the launching of CAEX course Graduate Writing III – Advanced Composition Skills for both Quarter and Semester students!

- Quarter students beginning
  November 26, 2018
- Semester students beginning
  January 7, 2019

In this 8-week online course, you will work on synthesizing sources and organizing a small-scale literature review. You will also receive instruction in advanced scholarly voice and APA style nuances.

Archived ASC Webinars

Your Academic Skills Center has hosted a variety of webinars in October. They are now archived on our YouTube channel for your viewing. See details below!

Developing your Doctoral Identity
- Part 1: What is your Doctoral Identity?
- Part 2: Deanna's Story
- Part 3: Luis's Story
- Part 4: Finding your Doctoral Identity

2018 Using your Skills for Social Change Conference
- Presentation 1 – Crisis Management: Uncovering the Fourth Component of Student Success and Persistence
- Presentation 2 – Comfort During Chaos: Applying Skills to the Service of Others Exposed to Tragedy
- Presentation 3 – Polarities of Democracy: The Role of Theory in Effecting Social Change by Scholar-Practitioners
- Presentation 4 – Synthesizing Research to Impact Social Change

Editor's Corner

In October, your Academic Skills Center participated in Walden University's annual Global Days of Service event at Every Third Saturday. An organization in Minneapolis, MN that helps veterans and their families.

We helped them move into their now permanent location by painting and sorting through donated items.