Training Requirement for Title IX and Clery Act
Instructions for Students

Policy: The Walden University School of Nursing requires students preparing for practicum to complete a training prevention program prior to beginning the practicum component of nursing programs requiring practicum. This training program meets one of the compliance regulations for Title IX and Clery Act, which is required of universities by the U.S. Department of Education.

Overview of Training:
- Walden University utilizes a training program through a third-party vendor called EverFi.
- The training involves two short online courses titled, which take approximately two hours to complete:
  - Sexual Assault Prevention
  - AlcoholEdu for College
- Students only need to complete this training every 12 months.
- Students must complete the training prior to logging practicum hours at the field site.
