Editor’s Corner

Your Academic Skills Center is giving much thought to where we were in 2018 and where we would like to be in 2019. Our goal was in 2018 and is in 2019 to meet students where they are. That includes offering webinars that fit your schedule.

We’ve designed a short, 2-question survey polling Walden University students to tell us when their preferred time of the day, day of the week, and length of webinar best fits their schedule.

You can access the short, 2-question survey link via this text.

We thank you for your participation and look forward to growing and learning with you in 2019.

Sincerely, Your Academic Skills Center
