Savvy Tip for Success

August’s Student Tip:

“When beginning graduate course work it is important to stay organized. What has helped me is to start keeping a log of your courses and briefly describe what you have learned, and the resources attached to that learning.”

Anonymous, Walden Student

Share your tip and it could be featured in an upcoming issue of the ASC’s Savvy Student Newsletter.

Newly Edited ASC Stats Videos

Updated Statistical Test Videos

- Independent t-test, with Dr. Sarah Inkpen

- Chi Square Test in SPSS, with Dr. Janine Allwright

Editor’s Corner

Hello Walden University students!

In late August, your Academic Skills Center is launching a portion of its new website: The CAEX Courses and Workshops pages.

These newly designed pages will feature course introductory videos, student feedback from course and workshop evaluations, and the most important information up front, such as start dates and cost for each course and workshop.

Look for more information in September’s Savvy Student Newsletter.

Thank you!

Academic Reading

Interactive Tutorials!

The Academic Skills Center offers four, self-paced interactive tutorials on academic reading to help you be successful in your Walden degree program.

Click on the interactive tutorial below to begin!

- Reading to Understand
- Reading to Engage and Evaluate
- Reading Textbooks
- Reading Research Articles

*Each module should take about 20 – 30 minutes to complete.